And GNL doesn't know a single one of them.

Well I personally find it slightly ridiculous to simply assume Sinovac and Sputnik (both non-modRNA/-mRNA) are as deadly as Pfizer and Moderna.

Dowd is a fool or a liar or an attention whore or glutton for punishment? Steve Kirsch? All the dissident docs and bio-researchers and embalmers and nurses? The insurance actuaries' payouts? And VAERS, as astronomically underreported as it's been?

Out of the 5 billion who got any vaccine (if you believe it), how many got a Sinovac or Sputnik or some such though? I would bet it was less than 5%. So for statistical purposes, you can assume that about 100% got a genetic shot. Staggering.

I think it is much less than 5 billion though. First of all, estimates from Germany (which can probably be extrapolated to other countries) are that 20% of all vaccine passports were faked, which was easy to do in the earlier months when they went off of just paper based passports and only later entered them into electronic databases.

Also, I think the published data by governments of percentage rates of the vaccinated were much higher than true, to create the illusion of universal adoption.

I bet overall in the world it is less than 50% who got any shot. Especially since entire regions like Africa had a very low vaccination rate. But probably still in the billions overall.

And Svarga doesn't know anybody who got the shot (meaning she saw it with her own eyes).

Plus close to 80% "vaccination" rate in Germany, or the US, is just fake govt data.

Well 50% of 8 billion world population is still a whopping 4 B. Unless of course you state the 8 B world population is also just fake data...

I think even less than 50% got vaccinated. These big clowens wanted the world to get vaxxed, and motovated to it by telling that 2 vaxes were 2 persons, instead of vaxxed 2 times were counted as one. It is simple, by claiming the anti vax community are conspiracy apes, no one will ever face the real facts, and the gullable fools believe the gov's have their best interests in mind. Here in south africa we aren't even 30% vaxxed ha ha. Mostly middle class fools with computers and androids and money to buy data got fearmongered and vaxed, capice? So, that is why they all of a sudden have monkey pox in the middle of Africa, to teach Africa a lesson because we did not comply. All of a sudden they have these perfect data from a land with no technology and roads, ha ha. Fools are fools and will always stay fools.

These are conservative estimates that do not convey the magnitude of the problem. The excess death explosion of young people and children is accelerating. Not to mention the shedding problem which has slowly poisoned the unvaxxed. This promises to get much worse, and there is no end in sight.

Just wait for the future fertility problems.

Actually forget fertility generally. DNA contamination can result in heritability — i.e. birth defects. Thalidomide was at least kind enough to mostly cause malformation of limbs. Covid shots could cause just about anything, and the birth defects will be attributed to just about anything other than the shots.

I know a young construction worker who was told he needed the booster because he has a little asthma. He got it Tuesday morning and has been flat on his back since. Got sick at work two hours after the shot. I'll see how he's doing later.

And the angel of death [Fauci] killed all the firstborn [essential personnel] of Egypt [the world] in one night.

[A day with god is as thousand years. So are the nights.]

How did the angel of death do it?

Food adulterants.

How do we know?

The Hebrews were told to eat no leavened bread [adulterated food]

The creators of this drug and the main proponents of pushing it should all be considered enemies of the state and arrested on site. We should send US Marshals after them with wild West posters Dead or Alive. The deaths they have caused worldwide you're staggering. Only people like Genghis Khan, Mao, Hitler, Stalin and Pol Pot have done anywhere near the damage.
